Introduction

The surname Wells means... "dweller at the well" and thus comes within the locative category of surnames. Once everyone was known by a single name only, but this led to confusion and so an extra name was adopted. Thus a man named Joel who lived by a well might be known as Joel Wells (i.e. of the well), the additional named eventually becoming hereditary as a surname.

Early records mention Toke de Wells in the Norfolk Pipe Rolls of 1177, and Gilbert de Wells of Norfolk and William de Wells of Lincolnshire in the Hundred Rolls of 1273. Simon de Wells who died in 1207 was in Bishop of Chichester.

Among early emigrants to America was Gregory Wells, who is recorded in Virginia in 1655. Horace Wells (1815-1848) was a celebrated American dental surgeon.

The arms illustrated which may be described heraldically as Or, a lion rampant guardant sable; crest: a demi lion rampant sable are these of the Wells family.

Writers in the past have attributed symbolism to the tinctures and charges of heraldry-thus Or (gold) is said to denote generosity and sable (black), constancy. The lion is an emblem of deathless Courage.

There are tales (Carl Wells) that the Wells Family Reunion dates back to 1870's but no evidence of this yet.

Descendants of Plinney E. Wells

Generation No. 1

1. PLINNEY E.¹ WELLS was born April 25, 1827 in England, and died June 03, 1924 in Springville Iowa. He married ANNA HEPSI CURRIER July 05, 1852 in Ohio. She was born May 02, 1834 in New York, and died March 28, 1892 in Springville Iowa.

Notes for PLINNEY E. WELLS:

Plinney was English & Welch. He served in the army during the Civil War Veteran(Co. B, 20th Infantry) as a book-keeper or accountant in the role of paymaster in the Arkansas P-Ridge group. After the war Plinney made his living as a Stone Mason. Records found in the Marion (Iowa) Library - Historical Dept. Plinney died peacefully, in his sleep, of old age.

Note: memo from Grace Silver (Nov.'02) indicates that all of Plinney's children were born before he served in the Civil War.

Notes for ANNA HEPSI CURRIER:

Some say she died Mar 28, 1888. Living to be just 54 years old, she was part Welch & Scotch, and we think she is 1/4 Iroquois American Indian because they lived in that area of New York.

Buried next to her husband Plinney E. Wells in Crabapple Cemetery, Springville Iowa

Notes for EUGENE EBINEZER WELLS:

He liked to sing at dances & parties and made his living as a farmer and as a stone cutter. The name EUGNE is mis-spelled, on the tombstone. (that's sad... considering the fact that he was a master stone mason). Eugene suffered from "dropsy" (arthritis) and his legs would get all swollen up.

Note: memo from Grace Silver (Nov.'02) indicates that Eugene may have passed away in 1918, and not 1910.

Notes for LIDIA ANN IRISH:

After her husband's death she worked and struggled to keep a home for her children which she did with great care until they were married and in homes of their own. Since that time she has made her home with Mrs. Ada May Paul and has spent many enjoyable hours with her other children. She loved her children dearly and was greatly missed by them. During her last sickness she maintained her sweet patient disposition until the angel of death kissed her eyelids down in the sweet sleep of death, at the age of sixty-four years, eleven months and twenty-four days.

Don and Jennifer first met sometime in the early 1970's when they journeyed together, with other church members, including her sister Priscilla, to a revival camp somewhere in Wisconsin. The funny part of the trip turned out to be when the church group stumbled upon a KKK meeting in progress, but they managed to escape with their lives... Then they met again at Jennifer's church in May 2002, Donald immediately fell in love with Jennifer and swept her off her feet. They were engaged on July 17, 2002 and the wedding ceremony was planned for Aug. 10, 2002. We give Donald all the credit in the world for turning Jennifer's thinking away from dying, and focus it on living. Thank you Don for allowing us to spend a little more time with Jennifer, and for taking such good care of her.

She married (1) PAUL EUGENE CARNICLE 1993. He was born June 12, 1973 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She married (2) JEFFERY JOHNSTON August 2000.

Notes for PRUDENCE LYNN WELLS:

Prudence Lynn Johnston, 46, of Cedar Rapids, passed away on June 29th, 2021 at home. A celebration of life will be held at Cedar Memorial on Saturday, July 10th, from 2pm - 4pm with private eulogies graveside to follow.

Prudence was born to Rebecca Pence and Paul Wells on August 4th, 1974, in Iowa City, Iowa. After graduating from Jefferson High School she married Paul Carnicle and in 1993 their son, Seth, was born. She trained at Capris College and had a short career as a stylist before devoting herself to her home and family full time.

Prudence married Jeffrey Johnston on August 11th, 2000 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Their son, Ian, was born in 2001, and son, Roman, was born in 2003. Together they had many adventures, traveling the world, scuba diving and sightseeing, and keeping up with their busy boys closer to home, coaching soccer and basketball and traveling for wrestling and golf tournaments.

Prudence had a rare warmth and vibrancy that attracted many friends throughout her life. She lit up any room she walked into, greeting loved ones and strangers alike with her radiant smile and heart. She was unfailingly generous, opening her home and arms to whoever needed a place to rest and an ear to listen. She spent her life taking care of others, beginning with her little sister Lisa who—like so many others who loved Prudence—admired her and depended on her candor and wisdom. Prudence loved her sons fiercely and devoted herself to them with singular focus. She loved music, connecting with friends, and cheering on her Hawkeyes. She had an innate artistic sensibility that found various forms throughout her life including dance, drawing, and in her final years, creative writing.

She was deeply loved by her parents, siblings, friends, and her boys Ian and Roman whom she cherished above all others. Those who knew her describe her as fierce, strong, beautiful, funny, brave, and outgoing. She was not afraid to be herself or assume the spotlight, but whenever she did she made room for others to join her in it. The world is lesser without her in it. She will be desperately missed.

Prudence is survived by her husband Jeffrey Johnston and her sons Ian Johnston of Vermillion, South Dakota and Roman Johnston of Cedar Rapids; her mother Rebecca Miller (Pence), stepfather Charles Miller, and brothers Aaron Miller and Ben Miller of Cedar Rapids; her father Paul Wells of Anna, Texas; her sister Lisa Wells of Seattle, Washington; her granddaughter Brighton; and by a legion of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends across the country.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents and her beloved son, Seth Carnicle.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the families' non-profit, The Choices Network, Ltd.
